THANK YOU'S GO OUT TO SO MANY

Thank You We are fortunate to have so many talented hardworking tradespeople among our parishioners. In the past little while we have had a new water system put into the hall, renovations in the rectory and railings put into the church. The services of our parish family are invaluable. Thanks to Ed Leahy for his excellent work finishing the railing. We would also like to thank Andy Calder for his excavation work, Dan McDougal, Scott Concrete, Apex Plumbing and Kawartha Stair and Railing for their excellent work to maintain our buildings.

A BIG ST. JOSEPH THANK YOU ALSO to the crew from St. Joseph School and the Knights that came out to clean up all the leaves on the church properties on Thursday afternoon.

PRAYER TO ST JOSEPH Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

MESSAGES FROM Fr. RANDY

Let us remember During November we will remember our faithful departed. By the statue of St. Patrick candles, I will have a basket there and at any time throughout November you are welcome to write down on piece of paper name(s) you wish to remember during this month at mass.

One of the most sublime of the spiritual works of mercy is to pray for the dead, especially our deceased loved ones and family members. The Church invites us every year to intensify that act of charity during the month of November. We pray for those who lived, to our eyes, a good and holy life. We also pray for those who seemed to live a life far from God, his sacraments, and his commandments. We pray for them all, entrusting them to God's mercy, knowing that in the communion of saints, our prayers and good deeds are efficacious.

We pray for the deceased because we realize that each one of us at death hangs on to something of this earthly life and may not be quite prepared for heaven or ready to accept and receive the fullness of God's love. It is in purgatory that we are purified and cleansed of our imperfections so that we can join the company of saints and enjoy eternally that place where every tear is wiped away. The following words of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI are very helpful and consoling: "I would go so far as to say that if there was no purgatory, then we would have to invent it, for who would dare say of himself that he was able to stand directly before God ..."

Purgatory basically means that God can put the pieces back together again. That he can cleanse us in such a way that we are able to be with him and can stand in the fullness of life." Purgatory, therefore, is a great mercy.

Both the Old and New Testaments provide us with examples of praying for the dead. I present you with a few examples:

1. General Judas Maccabbe takes up a collection so that prayers would be said in the Temple for his soldiers killed in battle, in reparation for their sins (2 Macc. 12:39-45)

2. Praying to Saints: The Rich Man and Lazarus (Luke 16:24-28)
  3. Saul Petitions the Prophet Samuel After the Latter's Death (1 Sam 28:15-19, Jer 15:1)
  4. The Apostle Paul Prayed for the Dead (2 Tim 1:16-18)
- Therefore, praying for the deceased is a long-standing obligatory practice of our Catholic faith. Let us remember to pray this month for all those who have died. We pray with faith together as a family; we pray with hope that we will see our loved ones again; and we pray with charity for those for whom there is no one to pray.
- Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord; And let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen.
- May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen

QUESTIONNAIRES SYNOD 2021-2023

Remember to return your questionnaires from previous Sunday to the box in the main entrance.

Nov. 7 COMMUNION

Nov. 14 PARTICIPATION

Nov. 21 MISSION

Sunday November 28th following mass those who wish to stay after mass we will have a further discussion regarding the three topic Communion, Participation and Mission.

NEW OPTION FOR MASS INTENTIONS For anyone who would like to have a mass said you now have the option of filling out your information on an envelope from the back of the church and dropping it in the collection basket. At this time we are booking weekday masses in January of 2022 and weekend masses in April of 2022.

NEW MISSALS FOR 2021/22 Because of Covid19 we will be unable once again to place missals in the church pews. If you are interested in having a missal you will find them at the back of the church - suggested donation is $5.00 per missal. The new missal begins on Nov. 28.

Thank you, Fr. Randy
