Dear Friends, our parish is so blessed and enriched with these are two wonderful organization CWL/K of C. They offer countless volunteer hours to the faith community and financial support to many parish projects and programs.

CWL/K of C -They provide community/fellowship: allows one to be with other catholic men or women.

spiritual enrichment through prayer and other spiritual programs to enrich ones as individual but also to the community of your family and parish life.

-Offer great service to your faith community and your local community, such a snow removal, caring for the altar, help those in need, visiting shut-in/sick, caring and maintaining our church buildings, and so much more.

-This time of year is their membership drive. Will you consider joining the CWL or K of C councils, if you are interest just contact a member or Mary McKeiver

President of CWL or Dan Maloney Grand Knight.

Please remit your annual dues ASAP.

Meetings will resume when the hall is available again.

Dear Friends,

Having celebrated the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, we finish the Christmas season and head into Ordinary Time, knowing that Christ's Baptism is both an affirmation of our human dignity and a challenge to bring that dignity to our faulty and fallen world.

We have so much work to do, and in the exhaustion of a pandemic our efforts seem anemic at times. We can never do enough, and what little we do accomplish to make the world a just, more compassionate, more peaceful and healthy place of dignity for all seems rather flat. I find the devil loves to make us seem inadequate, and at fault.

This Sunday's Gospel about the wedding feast at Cana is one of my favorites. Mary our Mother is the heroine—convincing her Son that at this beginning of His public ministry he does not have to get the major work done. The Crucifixion is chapters away.

Mary, in her consistent and insightful intuition seems to be saying just do something kind for this poor couple in an embarrassing moment of ill-planning. (They should have checked the wine order!)

Start small with kindness in small ways and the big accomplishments will come. The important thing is do something. As St. Paul notes in the second reading, everyone has something to offer. Do it now. The chance to change the world could come in one small act, much like the miracle at Cana eventually leads to the Cross, and the blood that flows like wine becomes our lifeblood for the sake of the world.

Fr. Randy

Psalm 23 My Shepherd, My Caregiver

The Lord is my shepherd. Because I am your shepherd and caregiver, you are my precious child. I love you just the way you are, a dedicated caregiver who may be tired, lonely, angry, questioning and guilt laden. In my arms you will always find refuge and rest. I proved my love for you when I sent my son to die on the cross and overcome death. This is assurance as we walk this caregiving season together.

I shall not want. My precious lamb, my grace will always be sufficient for every step you take. My Holy Word will nourish you. My continual presence will be your strength and hope. Out of my love I will give you resources to help with your loved one—professional caregivers, counselors, family, friends and more. Look for my blessings interlaced throughout your day!

He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters. He restores my soul. Pour out your heart to me. And then be still and know that I am God. Spending time with me, your heavenly caregiver, will always renew your attitude and refresh your soul with everlasting hope! Be assured that my mercies will be new each morning, no matter how heavy your burdens.

He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. I love being with you, My lamb. You will recognize my voice as we spend time together. Throughout the many challenges, choices and changes you face as a caregiver, I will be there guiding, leading and comforting you.

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. As your almighty caregiver, I know the valleys you walk through. Not one detail about you, my beloved lamb, goes unnoticed. At times you may doubt that my plans for you are good and full of hope, but I am in control. Trust my faithfulness!

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. I take great delight in you. I look forward to having you sit at my banqueting table each time you feast on my word and commune with me. As your shepherd, I am your refuge. Doubt and discouragement, your enemies, are powerless. The oil of my blessings will overflow, and you will know a peace that passes all understanding.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Look to me as your caregiver. I love you! I have redeemed you! Let me be your firm foundation as you walk through the valleys of disappointment and green pastures of rest. I will never leave you nor forsake you, for in me you have the guarantee of eternal life. I am the Good Shepherd. Follow me.

ONLINE MASS is available on the Diocesan website for anyone who is unable to attend Sunday Mass.

THE PARISH OFFICE IS CLOSED

Maryann will be working from home as much as possible under the advice of the Diocesan Pastoral Center. Please feel free to contact the office by email.

Fr. Randy will be in the rectory and will answer calls when possible. The best way to contact the office is by email which is checked regularly. Please watch for updates in the bulletin.

WE PRAY FOR ALL THE SICK PEOPLE OF OUR PARISH...

If you have someone you would like added to the prayer list and/or they would like communion brought to them (in hospital or at home), please call the Parish Office 705 652-3231 OR talk with Fr. Randy
