Don't Be a Consumer...Be a Disciple. A Free Daily Lenten Experience with Matthew Kelly

This Lent, let's focus on who God wants us to become. We can do that together, if you join us for Dynamic Catholic's BEST LENT EVER. It's a short video from Matthew Kelly sent directly to your inbox every morning of Lent, meant to inspire and encourage you on your personal Lenten journey. For the first time ever, Dynamic Catholic will be providing two options this year. The first, The Generosity Habit, will focus on God's generosity and how to live lives of staggering generosity day by day. The second, Difficult Teachings, will focus on Jesus' 40 most difficult teachings, all of which can transform our lives when we face them head on. Both videos will come in one simple email. Sign up at BestLentEver.com and get ready for a life changing Lent!

MESSAGES FROM Fr. RANDY:

DEAR FRIENDS,

Lenten Corner Reminder starting March 4th mass will be at 12 (noon) followed by Stations of the Cross.
 Check out few moments of reflection by Ken Yasinski on the front page of the Parish webpage
www.stjoesphdouro.com

One Word at a Time RESENT

How do we oppose the mercy of God? Certainly, that happens when we refuse to accept or share mercy. More subtly and perhaps more dangerously, it happens when we resent the forgiveness and the second chance that others receive. In doing so, we align ourselves with death, not new life. "But we had to celebrate and rejoice, because this brother of yours was dead and has come to life; he was lost and has been found." (Luke 15:32)

THE HOLY EUCHARIST: DID YOU KNOW?

Imitate the saints! This is an invitation to each of us. It was emphasized in the teaching of Vatican II. We are each called to become a saint. Father Lukas Etlin explains in his booklet, "The Holy Eucharist Our All", that we accomplish this by nourishing a great devotion to Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. By placing all of our cares, hopes and fears before Our Lord, we grow in our love for Him and for each other.

Reflection: Our social relationships need personal interactions in order to grow and blossom. If we do not spend time with a loved one or friend and if we neglect them, our relationship withers and fades. It is the same with our relationship with God. When was the last time you spent quiet time after reception of Holy Communion to actually talk with Our Lord? When was the last time you took moments out of your busy day to talk with Him in prayer?

"I rejoiced when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." Psalm 122:1

We welcome all visitors and parishioners who have come to worship here today. To our visitors, you may have come as a stranger to us, yet you are known to Our Lord, Jesus Christ. In His name, we pray you will find peace, hospitality, and friendship with us.

MARCH 19TH FEAST OF ST. JOSEPH HUSBAND OF MARY

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life.

Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage, and defend us from every evil. Amen.

"WE BELONG TO EACH OTHER"

Dear Friends: As we move forward through these 40 Days of Lent, we experience Jesus' move from the Desert of Temptation to the Mountain of Glory, the Transfiguration. We strive to discern the glory amid the agony of limits. And the limits that fill the hearts of us, Abraham's descendants, are as numerous as the stars of the sky!

I don't know about you, but I need Lent more than ever! I need to regain focus in all that is happening in our troubled world and our suffering Church. Be it the brave struggle of our beloved friends in the Ukraine or seeing those on our streets, I am filled with inspiration and challenge that occur so often, but which I sometimes in my busy-ness and self-importance fail to notice.

The drowsy disciples had to stop sleeping in order to see the Transfiguration, and we too are called to open our eyes to the glory that is unfolding even in the midst of struggle and suffering. We need to focus on Jesus Christ, and let His light lead us from painful self-preoccupation and division to a compassionate glory that has always been present to those who believe in God.

Let's continue to focus on Jesus—to pray without ceasing, fast from any darkness and despair, and give with open hearts to those in need. We await Easter!

MARCH 17TH ST. PATRICK DAY

Christ be with me, Christ within me
 Christ behind me, Christ before me
 Christ beside me, Christ to win me
 Christ to comfort me and restore me.
 Christ beneath me, Christ above me
 Christ in quiet, Christ in danger
 Christ in hearts of all that love me
 Christ in mouth of friend or stranger.
