"I rejoiced when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." Psalm 122:1

We welcome all visitors and parishioners who have come to worship here today on Eighteenth Sunday! To our visitors, you may have come as a stranger to us, yet you are known to Our Lord, Jesus Christ. In His name, we pray you will find peace, hospitality, and friendship with us. No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, we are glad you're here and hope that you come back again. The doors of our parish and our hearts are open to you. Please be in touch.

If you are a resident in this area, we hope that you will continue to grace us with your presence and register with us. You may call 705-652-3231 or stop by the parish office to register. If you are a visitor, we thank you for participating in worshipping with us and we hope to see you again.

The Holy Eucharist: DID YOU KNOW?

In today's Gospel (Luke 12:13-21) we encounter the parable of the Rich Fool, who laid up earthly treasures and neglected to pursue the spiritual treasures of eternal life. This parable recalls the quote of St. Peter Julian Eymard: "Give up all earthly goods for the sake of one Holy Communion."

Reflection: What are you willing to give up in order to receive Holy Communion? Perhaps a return to the Sacrament of Penance after many years away from the Church? Or the pleasure of a sporting event? Or the opportunity to "sleep late" on a Sunday morning? Do you possess your possessions or do they possess you? Weigh the weight of earthly goods against the glories of eternity. How do they come out in the balance?

SAVE THE DATE!

August 15 our annual Cemetery Mass (please note this mass isn't just for those buried in St. Joseph Parish Cemetery but for all our faithful departed.) All are welcome. Bring a lawn chair as we will celebrate mass in the cemetery.

September 1 Labour Day "Dour Doings" We ask your help in getting the word out to other communities.

PLEASE PATRONIZE OUR ADVERTISERS. They make our bulletin possible. Thank you! This bulletin is furnished to the parish without charge. The advertisements that appear completely defray all publishing costs, with which the church would otherwise be burdened. Please patronize these sponsors as a thank-you for their kind generosity.
