The Holy Eucharist: DID YOU KNOW?

This week's theme: The Eucharist as REAL FOOD
 St. Thomas Aquinas wrote that, "The Eucharist is best understood as spiritual food."

Reflection: In His Divine Wisdom Christ knows that we need not only nourishment for our bodies, but also for our souls. By giving us His own precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity in the Holy Eucharist, Jesus can give us nothing more. He totally gives us HIMSELF. By giving us this Bread of Eternal Life, He sustains us on our earthly journey through the trials and tribulations of our lives. The Eucharist is the sustenance and strength that we need. Can we afford to turn away from this Divine gift of love, which sustains us in life?

Reminder of our annual Cemetery Mass this Monday evening at 7p.m. followed by a social. All are invited bring a lawn chair as we be over at the cemetery.

CONGRATULATIONS TO GRACE VANDEN

BROEK (daughter of Mike and Marlene) who won a silver medal in rowing pairs this past summer in Commonwealth games in England.
