"I rejoiced when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." Psalm 122:1

We welcome all visitors and parishioners who have come to worship here today on Twenty-Eighth Sunday! To our visitors, you may have come as a stranger to us, yet you are known to Our Lord, Jesus Christ. In His name, we pray you will find peace, hospitality, and friendship with us. No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, we are glad you're here and hope that you come back again. The doors of our parish and our hearts are open to you. Please be in touch. If you are a resident in this area, we hope that you will continue to grace us with your presence and register with us. You may call 705-652-3231 or stop by the parish office to register. If you are a visitor, we thank you for participating in worshipping with us and we hope to see you again.

Reflection: Reflect upon the last words of today's Gospel from Luke 17:10, "So you also, when you have done all that you were ordered to do, say 'We are worthless slaves; we have only done what we ought to have done.'" We can appreciate why St. Faustina attributed everything positive and good to Jesus Eucharistic. Because of the Incarnation an abundance of grace flows to us. Whatever we accomplish as followers of Christ is due to that grace. It is God's grace which enables us to live our lives and become Christ to others.

Prayer of Thanks

Thank you, Lord, for all the blessings we have received this past year. We come to you in humble gratitude for your endless generosity, for good health and meaningful work, and for the love of our family and friends, we praise you God for these blessings, and most of all, for the gift of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen
 Lord, help us to be grateful every day and to live life of gratitude.

Praying that you and your family will have a blessed Thanksgiving.
 God Bless Fr. Randy
