WELCOME TO ST. JOSEPH'S PARISH

On Divine Mercy Sunday
April 6th/7th

"I really only love God
as much as I love the person
I love the least."

Dorothy Day

"I rejoiced when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." Psalm 122.1

We welcome all visitors and parishioners who have come to worship here today on the Fifth Sunday of LENT! To our visitors, you may come as a stranger to us, yet you are known to Our Lord, Jesus Christ. In His name, we pray you will find peace, hospitality, and friendship with us. No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, we are glad you're here and hope that you come back again. The doors of our parish and our hearts are open to you. Please be in touch. If you are a resident in this area, we hope that you will continue to grace us with your presence and register with us. You may call 705-652-3231 or stop by the parish office to register. If you are a visitor, we thank you for participating in worshipping with us and we hope to see you again. Peace and Good Will.

Holy Eucharist-Did You Know: Divine Mercy Sunday is a celebration of God's greatest attribute: His Mercy. Each of us needs mercy but we cannot expect God's mercy to be with us unless we are merciful to others through acts of forgiveness, charity or compassion.

Reflection: Never was Mercy ever needed more in our world than today. Embrace living mercy and the Divine Mercy of God will be yours. Union with the living Mercy, Jesus in the Holy Eucharist, is the surest way to accomplish this. "O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the heart of Jesus, pierced with a lance as a font of mercy for us: I trust in You." (St.Faustina)

QUILTING: in the Parish Hall Monday and Tuesday April 8/ 9. All are welcome. Please bring your thimble, everything else is provided. This will be the last quilting. There are 16 quilts for this year's Douro Doings.

Quotes for Reflection on Divine Mercy

From Creation, God has revealed his nature as love itself, in Sacred Scripture and most perfectly in the life, Passion, death and Resurrection of his Son, Jesus. Saints have also borne witness to God's unfathomable love, e.g., in the writings of Augustine, Aquinas, Catherine of Siena, Francis of Assisi, Margaret Mary Alacoque and Thérèse of Lisieux.

In his second encyclical, Rich in Mercy, Saint Pope John Paul II offers an extended meditation on the mystery of God's mercy, which he calls "the greatest of the attributes and perfections of God" (Dives in misericordia, 13). He returned to this theme throughout his pontificate:

"As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness, and fear, the Risen Lord offers His love that pardons, reconciles, and reopens hearts to love. It is a love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy! Lord, who reveals the Father's love by Your death and Resurrection, we believe in You and confidently repeat to You today: Jesus, I trust in You, have mercy upon us and upon the whole world."

—St. Pope John Paul II, Regina caeli message prepared for Divine Mercy Sunday, April 3, 2005

"A church that doesn't provoke any crisis, a gospel that doesn't unsettle, a word of God that doesn't get under your skin, a word of God that doesn't touch the real sin of the society in which it is being proclaimed. What gospel is that?"
Saint Oscar Romero
