5th Sunday of Easter / "Abide in me as I abide in you"

To abide in something has many meanings ...

- To accept and to be guided by something; to obey.
- To put up with; tolerate; stand with patiently.
- To remain; to stay; to continue on being with.
- To dwell; to reside; to have an abode, a place we call home.
- To carry on in a particular condition, attitude, or relationship.

We do not merely abide in God, but it is God also who abides in us. God chose to make God's self and being dwell within us. Not because we deserve it or have earned it, but it is a choice out of love, that God makes, for our good and well-being.

To the degree that we allow God to abide in us, then together we have made our home with God, within. It is a relationship of mutuality and profound respect. The more then that we abide in God, then the more we become the one we abide in. Stillness.

PRAYING FOR and WITH OUR LOVED ONES

For the health and well being of Joe Ross, David Rundle, Jack Holland & Patti Simmons.

Let us also keep in our prayers those in Nursing Homes, Retirement Residences or are shut-ins.

And let us remember in our prayers those who have recently died, Alice Fitzgerald, Gus Whibbs and Jim Doherty. If there is someone in our community who is in need of prayers or a pastoral visit, please contact the office. Peace.

"We cannot live in a world that is not our own, in a world that is interpreted for us by others. An interpreted world is not a home. Part of the terror is to take back our own listening, to use our own voice, to see our own light." St. Hildegard of Bingen

AZ QUOTES

Jesus understood God's unconventional wisdom . His life challenged the status quo of mediocrity. As Christians, are we not also called to be as unconventional as Jesus was? pah
