Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Times 02/23/2025

Dear Friends,

This weekend, Jesus says in the Gospel, "If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? Even sinners do the same". And yes, this is a very hard thing to do. In fact, left to my own strength and capabilities, what Jesus is proposing in the Gospel is impossible to do. Our trust is, therefore, that Jesus will provide us with what we need to do things like loving our enemies and never judging others. It is the Christian thing to do and, no matter how virtuous a person is, without practicing what Jesus lays out in the Gospel this weekend, we are not of Christ.

Lord, You revealed a loving forgiving, and generous God.

Thank you for reminding us that we will be repaid with the same love, forgiveness, and generosity that we show to others. Amen

Ponder: What does my typical daily mood say about my faith?

"I rejoiced when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord." Psalm 122.1

We welcome all visitors and parishioners who have come to worship here today. To our visitors, you may come as a stranger to us, yet you are known to Our Lord, Jesus Christ. In His name, we pray you will find peace, hospitality, and friendship with us. No matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, we are glad you're here and hope that you come back again. The doors of our parish and our hearts are open to you. Please be in touch. If you are a resident in this area, we hope that you will continue to grace us with your presence and register with us. You may call 705-652-3231 or stop by the parish office to register. If you are a visitor, we thank you for participating in worshipping with us and we hope to see you again. Peace and Good Will.

Jubilee: Pilgrims of Hope

Genuflection. In medieval Europe, it was a custom to go down on one knee (to genuflect) before a king or person of rank. This secular mark of honor gradually entered the Church and people began to genuflect to honor the altar and the presence of Christ in the tabernacle before entering the pew. Today many people express their reverence with an even older custom and bow to the altar before taking their place.

Posture, song. When the Mass begins everyone stands up. Standing is the traditional posture of the Christian at prayer: It expresses our attentiveness to the word of God and our readiness to carry it out. Often we begin by singing together. What better way to gather than to unite our thoughts and our voices in common word, rhythm and melody. (all the parts of music, harmony, melody, different instruments-separate they are not complete)

Greeting. The priest will ask us to begin with the sign of the cross, again reminding us of Baptism, and will greet us, saying, "The Lord be with you." You will hear this greeting frequently. It means many things. Like "good day" it can mean both "hello" and "good-bye." It is both a wish (may the Lord be with you) and a profound statement of faith (as you assemble for worship, the Lord is with you). It is an ancient biblical greeting: Boaz returned from Bethlehem (we read in the Book of Ruth 2:4) and said to the reapers, "The Lord be with you!" The ritual response to this greeting is always the formula, "And with your spirit," by which we return the hello, the good wishes, the statement of faith.

Penitential Rite, Gloria. All the other ritual acts of this first part of the Mass are intended to gather us together into a worshipping assembly. Sometimes we are asked to pause and recall our common need for salvation (the Penitential Rite). Sometimes the hymn "Glory to God in the Highest" is sung or recited at this point. The "Gloria" has been a part of the Mass since about the sixth century! These longer hymns and responses are found in the missalette at our seat.

Opening Prayer. At the close of this first part of the Mass the priest will ask us to join our minds in prayer, and after a few moments of silence he will collect our intentions into one prayer to which we all respond "Amen," a Hebrew word for "So be it."
